

Harry Rosen Presents: How'd you Get in?

On May 8th at the Bloor Street Location the store was filled with a panel of five successful entrepreneurs and a couple hundred ambitious professionals. Hearing the personal journeys of each panel member gave the audience a real life perspective that your dreams can come to reality. Key thoughts that I wanted to pass on from the event was the importance of Mentoring, Networking and going for your dream .

RRAA Spring & Summer: Alumni Social Events

Over the last couple of months, some Retail Alumni members have been spotted at many local networking events in the city.

In April, Alumni Relations held the Blackboard to Boardroom event focused on providing new grads the tools and tactics to transition themselves to the workforce. There was an open discussion with Career Services expert Chantal Symes, an insight look into the first social media platform targeted to employment and professionals networking WhoPlusYou and the Keynote speaker Lauren Friese, the Founder of TalentEgg.ca.

In May the PR team from Harry Rosen presented a Networking Event called How'd you get in? that featured a panel of five successfully entrepreneurs in the Toronto. They discussed their journeys and different career paths that lead them to their successful companies such as Porter Airlines, Steam Whistle Brewing and Notable.ca.

Most recent we caught groups of alumni at the new local hot spot pub in the Ryerson hood. On July 12th some of our Retail Alumni joined together for good times at Lou Dawgs for the Blackboard to Boardroom series.

The night involved catching up with old friends and meeting new ones while enjoying the delicious finger licking southern-style BBQ food. Lou Dawgs is a new local school hangout pub for Ryerson students to gather have fun.

The owner Daryl D'Souza, shared his entrepreneurial lessons and his vision he had for the 2nd Location of Lou Dawgs. As the slogan even says, they are the King of Serving "Good Times".

You gotta try some tasty BBQ goodness @LouDawgs on the corner of Church and Gerrard. Stay up-to-date with events & start following their social manager on twitter @iamjeffcole.

On behalf of the RRAA Executive Team of the RRAA, we hope to see you the next Ryerson Alumni Event.
